ABOUT THE STATE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM

Alfred Pelky paid the costs of the city as a fine for turning in a false alarm of fire in St. Albans recently.

DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Martin S. Vilas of Burlington was appointed by the League to Enforce Peace as a delegate from Vermont to the convention now in session at Washington, but was unable to attend.

O. S. Nichols of Essex Junction has the contract to put in a new dam and pump house, all of concrete. This will be built about a mile below the reservoirs. Work will be begun as soon as the material can be gotten on the ground. The dam will be about 77 feet long.

Frank E. Howe of Bennington was one of the Memorial day speakers at Newfane, his father being one of the first men to enlist from the latter place. at the outbreak of the Civil war.

At a recent club meeting held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Lamson of Brattleboro, the refreshments served were fruits brought from Florida by Mrs. Lamson for the purpose.

The Stowe high school agricultural club has set out about 125 two and three-year-old white pine and white cedar trees in the River Bank cemetery. The trees were contributed by Mrs. Julia J. Irving of Burlington.

Miss Margaret Chisholm, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Chisholm of Proctor, and Mortimer R. Proctor, son of Mrs. Fletcher D. Proctor and of the late Governor Proctor, were married in Proctor Monday. They have gone west for a several months' honeymoon trip.

George Bashaw of Swanton Junction is in the St. Albans hospital with a compound fracture of his right leg, caused by being struck by a rail which the heat had expanded in the Central Vermont railroad yard at Swanton and which sprang out as Mr. Bashaw was working on it.

George Prentiss of Milton is in a serious condition as a result of being thrown from his team by a passing automobile and then being run over by it, the car continuing on its way without stopping. He lay unconscious in the road until another auto came and took him to a nearby house. It is thought he will recover.

Dr. Norman A. Donovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan of St. Albans, was killed Sunday afternoon at Elmira, N. Y., when his motor cycle ran into a telegraph pole. He wrote his mother only last week of his purchase of a cycle and announced that he would come on it for a visit in St. Albans later in the season. His body was brought to St. Albans for interment.

Mrs. Charles A. Lyman was badly injured as she was leaving the Middlebury town hall Tuesday after attending the Memorial day exercises, when an iron pillar, which supported the gallery in hall, fell upon her. One shoulder and hand were hurt. As the large audience rose to leave the building, the floor of the auditorium settled slightly and of the auditorium settled signity and the pillar, which is about four inches done to streets and property at Scarff's fever, 1.
